THIS & THAT

THIS WEEK - PRAY THAT "LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF" WILL CONTINUE

MEN & LADIES - THIS FRIDAY NITE AT THE BUILDING/STARTING @ 6:30PM

Need your money today. $5.00 charge per couple/Singles $2.50... BUNCO/$5-10 or White Elephant... Menu - Sub Sandwiches. Bring your chips/drinks/desserts. Bring your sweetie or friend. Will be a great evening of fellowship.

GARY JONES - February - Reading Glass - Bring your old glasses or buy reading glasses where sold/ will be collecting all month/ if you have case bring also.

WORD OF THE WEEK I & II Chronicles: Wherever men feel an interest in public worship, the Books of Chronicles will have a message of instruction and inspiration.

TIP OF THE WEEK - Time to prune Trees/Bushes.

HEALTH - Raspberry Ketone Fresh & Natural Green Cleanse will take 4lbs of belly fat off you weekly.

FREE TAX-AIDE - Call for appointments after Jan 21st 218-382-3333

HUMOR - I.R.S. accountant said to tax payer. The average person finds 10 -25 coins under their cushions every year, but you haven't reported any.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE APOSTLES - As to Peter, "Jerome saith that he was crucified, his head being down and his feet upward, himself so requiring, because he was [he said] unworthy to be crucified after the same form and manner as the Lord was."

KIDS IN CHURCH - A little boy was overheard praying: "Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am."

POWER FOR TODAY - God gets down to basic -- to act justly/love mercy/walk humbly. Three simple things: "Act justly" treat others as we would want to be treated. "Love mercy" care about others before ourselves "Walk humbly" life plays out one day at a time, commit each day to living for the Lord, put others first in our relationships.

LIFE IN THESE UNITED STATES - After digging 30 feet deep, students at OSU at Stillwater, OK, in a archaeologist class reported they found nothing. Concluded that 300 yrs ago America had already gone wireless.

STATESIDE/OVERSEAS - HG SUPPORTED/SEARCH - The addition of the CW Plus Network means an even greater reason to support SEARCH. We expect this growth in 70 new markets, where we've never shown before on broadcast, will lead to a greater response than we've ever faced before. Please take what we do here seriously. We need your help each month to reach souls for Jesus.

LOCK STOCK & BARREL - At one time a purse consisted of a leather pouch drawn to a close with a string. Holding the purse strings ensured that you controlled when the purse was opened and therefore when money was spent or deposited in it. The design of purses may have changed over time, but the metaphor still holds true.

MAN'S WAY OR GOD'S WAY - Investigating Methodist M/baptize infants justified on basis Jesus said "Suffer the children to come unto me." Parents are bound to teach infant after baptism, concerning "M faith"

BIBLE - There was and is only one baptism. Eph 4:5. Baptism not what Jesus was teaching on this occasion ... not mentioned in this entire chapter, nor chapter before or after. Infants never baptized in all Bible history. True baptism, Matt 28:18-20, Infants not capable of instruction, hence never received baptism in the Biblical record.

NAME OF JESUS - SHEPHERD AND BISHOP OF SOULS: (1 Peter 2:25) For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

NO NEUTRALITY - 1 Jn 2:15 Whoever wishes to be a friend of the world Makes himself an enemy of God

BRAIN TEASER - I am a fathers child/mothers child /yet I'm not a son ? Answer bottom back page.

BIBLE QUIZ - Defined Antediluvian - father of nations/before flood / against Adam/God provides.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY - Failure in people is caused more by lack of determination than lack in talent. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not Gal 6:9

SPIRITUAL NARCISSISM

by Dalton Key

An Ancient passage updated to suit the whims of our age: "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on Him, If you continue in following your heart, then are you my disciples indeed; and you shall know, from deep within yourself, the path you should follow, and that path will make you free." (John 8:31,32.) I think I'll stick with the original version.

Motion pictures and television shows have promoted the idea for years now. When facing a major decision, when standing at one of life's crossroads, major characters are encouraged to "look within" and "follow your heart." No ill will come -- only good will ensue -- if only they choose to disregard conventional wisdom, flaunt moral and legal restrictions, and listen to their heart.

But that is Hollywood, and more or less expected from a culture completely disengaged from any semblance of reality.

What more deeply concerns me is that this "follow your heart" philosophy has begun seeping into the church. While sermons of yesteryear emphasized the absoluteness of truth, the authority of the Bible, and the necessity of having a "thus saith the Lord" for all matters of belief and practice, such preaching is now viewed by many more-modern members as too narrow, too rigid, too dogmatic. We're hearing that sincerity, tolerance, and acceptance are the new coins of the realm; that the "what" of Scripture is less important than the "why" which motivates us; that "feeling spiritual" and "having a sense of self" are the important things.

Such spiritual narcissism might seem at least slightly plausible were it not for inspired words like those of Jeremiah, written centuries ago but still relevant for our misguided generation: "O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walks to direct his steps." (Jeremiah 10:23.)

In the end, when all is said and done, when the dust of confusion settles and the sky of comprehension is once again clear, it will have been the truth from above, and not the heart from within, providing our freedom from sin.

"As a matter of fact, Mr. Danon, we did happen to notice your 8700 jobs of leaving the U.S. government as a dependent."

UPDATE ON SOLAR FUEL.

The sun converts 540 million tons of hydrogen into helium every second. Newer measurements have upped that figure to 700 million tons. The power of the sun and the incredible quantity of fuel consumed every second tells us that God has designed an energy source that is beyond our comprehension in many ways. We just need to learn how to harness it to solve our energy problems.

GETTING UNCOMFORTABLE WITH THE HIGGS BOSON.

Hadron Collider announced that they had found the Higgs Boson with a 99.99% certainty. The discovery strongly supported the "Standard Model" of how the universe works. Of the 17 particles predicted by the Standard Model, 16 had been found previously, but the Higgs Boson was the most elusive. Writers are now turning their attention to the implications of the Standard Model as supported by this newest research. One of the major implications is that some 20 constants have to be exactly what they are to 32 decimal places for the Standard Model to work. Being able to attribute that kind of precision for that many constants on a blind chance basis is unacceptable for many researchers.

JUNK DNA DATA ACCELERATES

When the human genome was being worked out, the 3 billion base pairs that make up our DNA coalesced into only 22,000 genes, which is only 2% of the human genome. That meant that 98% of the human genome did not seem to have a function, and that material was called "Junk DNA." It was considered to be material left over from the evolutionary processes that shaped our genes. Since that time the U.S. National Institutes of Health have had a project called Encyclopedia of DNA Elements (ENCODE). Four hundred forty-two scientists working in 32 labs have been involved in studying the "nongene portion" of the human genome. This section is made up of some 4 million constantly communicating switches which make an uncommitted cell in a growing embryo determine what kind of cell it will become. Dr. Eric Green, the director of the National Human Genome Research Institute says, "This is a powerful resource for exploring the fundamental question of how life is encoded" and it turns out this "junk DNA" may be the answer for curing a huge number of diseases, including cancer. It seems that the error here was assuming that chance explained the genome, and that if you did not see a purpose for something, it was junk. If we believe that life is intelligently designed, then we are not surprised that there is a purpose for all we see that makes up our genome.

INTERNET GAMBLING MOVES FORWARD

For many years there have been those in Congress who have tried to make it legal for gambling to be carried on by anyone with a home computer. HR 2267 was the main bill that was written by former Rep. Barney Frank (D-Mass., retired in January 2013). While there is gambling available online, it is illegal in Hawaii, Indiana, Louisiana, Montana, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and Washington state. The estimated social costs of internet gambling were instituted nationwide is 25 billion dollars per year. Many of us live in states where casinos have been legalized, and know the effect of these institutions. It is hard to visualize the results of nationwide legalized internet gambling. As morals collapse in our culture because of the rejection of religious values, the overt cost to all of us in practical dollars-and-cents terms is huge.
